ANOTHER DREYFUS CASE.

The Paris Matin's London correspondent having obtained 85 authentic plans of the fortifications at Toulon, besides numerous other compromising documents, that paper yesterday morning began the publication of the history of a treason affair like the offense which Captain Dreyfus was charged.

April 21 the correspondent received a letter written in a queer semi-French, semi-Italian jargon and signed "Fragola Pietro," telling him that the writer, who was employed at a hotel, had been acting as a guide to two persons who had come to London to sell a large parcel of documents of the highest importance concerning French naval defenses. The letter stated that the men had gone to Brussels, leaving the writer penniless. He therefore wanted to negotiate for the transfer of certain documents, but was unwilling to treat directly with the French government, preferring to deal with the Matin or some other newspaper. The correspondent thought the letter was probably a begging trick, but replied addressing his answer to the postoffice to be called for, and making an appointment, which Fragola duly kept. The man's desperate state of hunger seemed to prove his sincerity. Fragola told the following story:

He was formerly employed at the War Ministry in Rome, but became compromised in a case of espionage and was sentenced to six months in prison. Subsequently he went to London, living from hand to mouth. Recently he had been acting as a guide and secretary to two men of Italian origin, one of whom was a naturalized French citizen—he had formerly been acquainted at the War Ministry in Rome. Both of these men, Fragola said, worked for foreign governments and had several times sold important secrets to Germany at high prices. The Italian was Cesare Golo and the naturalized Frenchman was Jeremi Mesqui. The latter had long been a contractor on public works at Toulon. They had gone to Brussels five days before leaving him entirely without means. He found after their departure that Golo had left documents behind, and these he wanted to sell. Fragola then produced 85 plans of the Toulon forts, some of the French originals, and others accurate copies, made at the Italian War Ministry. He also had in his possession a list of plans of Cherbourg and Brest, with type-written instructions, alleged by Fragola to have emanated from the German staff, concerning the marking of batteries of artillery. There was a letter appointing a rendezvous at the Thuringer Hof, Berlin, for November 13, signed "X." To this was attached a card inscribed "Felix Friedrich Scholtz." The Matin's correspondent gave Fragola a few shillings and persuaded him to leave the documents in his hands in order that an examination of them might be made. The next morning he took them to the French Embassy, where the naval attaché declared them to be absolutely genuine.

On Trial for Murder.

Eleven jurors were chosen in Bedford, Ind., yesterday to try James McDonald for the murder of Sarah Schaffer, the pretty school teacher found dead in an alley there on January 22. McDonald, it is believed by many, is a degenerate. His lawyers say he was arrested because an arrest had to be made to satisfy public feeling. The defense will be a strong alibi. It was thought McDonald would be taken each night during the trial to the jail at Bloomington, Ind., for safe keeping, as the local jail at Bedford is being torn down, but he was housed last night in a wooden shanty built for town drunkards.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for lung and throat troubles. This can be testified to by Mrs. C. B. Van Metre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., who writes: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugists. Trial bottles free. Retail, 50c and $1.00.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.
